

Kirby Noonan Lance & Hoge Hires New Associate Attorney: Heather H. Wood

SAN DIEGO (Mar. 10, 2014) – Kirby Noonan Lance & Hoge (KNL&H) – a law firm based in downtown San Diego – has added Heather H. Wood as an associate attorney. Her practice areas include civil litigation and employment law.

Prior to joining KNL&H, Wood worked at the U.S. Attorney’s office as a law clerk where she was responsible for drafting portions of a Ninth Circuit Appellate Brief for an employment discrimination case and researched issues associated with Affirmative Civil Enforcement cases. Wood also served as an extern to the Honorable Larry A. Burns and Honorable Thomas E. Hollenhorst for the California Court of Appeals, Fourth District, Division Two.

“Heather brings valuable assets to the team with her background in litigation paired along with her impressive academic achievements,” said Managing Partner Charlie Hoge.

Wood earned her J.D., magna cum laude, from the University of San Diego School of Law. Graduating in the top 5 percent of her class, Wood was recognized with the Academic Achievement Award and made member of the Order of Coif. Wood earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in history from the University of California, Los Angeles.
