Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

“The Grand Canyon is the one great sight which every American should see.” In 1903, President Theodore Roosevelt said this when he first laid eyes on one of nature’s most awe-inspiring sights. Come explore the beautiful American West on this exciting close-to-home tour to Arizona. This trip features a combination of American West highlights with the scenery of Grand Canyon National Park and the red rocks of Sedona. Visit the Native American history at the Montezuma Castle National Monument, and enjoy the Old West nostalgia of two train rides in this beautiful region. Stay in quaint Sedona, known for its upscale resorts, artist galleries and breathtaking red rock scenery. It is the perfect base for this six day adventure.

We hope you can join us in September for spectacular sights and experiences in our own backyard!

Regards from Westwood,

Christel Aragon
Director, Alumni Travel
