Discovery

AHI Connects: Field to Fork Dining.

Meet the owners of the Longueville House and learn how they revitalized the 500-acre estate to achieve their field to fork vision. Savor a very special dinner prepared by the chef-owner that showcases freshly picked ingredients from the farm and gardens.

Dublin. Become acquainted with the lively Irish capital during a panoramic tour, then visit historic Trinity College and see the famous hand-illuminated Book of Kells, created by monks in the ninth century.

Rock of Cashel. Once the seat of kings such as Brian Boru, this atmospheric site became a medieval religious center, and the remains of the churches are a standout.

Jaunting Car Ride and Cruise. Ramble through serene Killarney National Park in a horse-drawn jaunting car, then delight in a pleasant boat trip on the Killarney Lakes.

Whiskey Tasting. Sip samples and learn more from a local expert.

Ring of Kerry. Journey along one of the world's most beautiful coastal drives. Watch border collies maneuver a flock of sheep, then meet the local shepherd and ask questions about the dogs, farm life and the flock. Admire local villages and take in views of the pristine Killarney Lakes.

Dingle Peninsula. En route to Killarney, travel via this picturesque peninsula. Tour The Blasket Island Heritage Center, which honors the island's former residents, and enjoy some free time in Dingle.

Loop Head Peninsula. Incredible scenery lies on either side of you as you head to the tip of this headland that juts out between the Atlantic Ocean and the Shannon Estuary. Relax over lunch before touring the Loop Head Lighthouse and the keeper's cottage.

Ennis Tour. Delve into the history and folklore of County Clare's capital city.

The Burren and Cliffs of Moher.

Witness this striking landscape of karstic limestone formations and diverse plants. Enjoy a presentation at the Burren Centre, then follow local expert Tony Kirby on a fascinating walk. View the Poulnabrone dolmen, a portal tomb from 2500–2000 B.C. Then, drive along the coast to the majestic Cliffs of Moher, which rise 700 feet above the Atlantic Ocean.

Aran Island of Inishmore (Inis Mór).

Take a ferry across Galway Bay to the largest of the Aran Islands, and explore this starkly beautiful locale where people have lived since the Stone Age. See the Bronze Age stone fort ruins of Dun Aengus (Dún Aonghasa).

AHI Sustainability Promise

We strive to make a positive, purposeful impact in the communities we visit, whenever possible.

Environmental Impact | Thoughtful choices to minimize our environmental footprint: eco-friendly transportation, guided walks in lieu of bus tours and less plastic waste.

Social Impact | Ongoing initiatives to support local businesses that employ and benefit people in the community. Curating meaningful experiences by staying in intimately sized locales instead of cities affected by overtourism.

Economic Impact | Community-based tourism using expert local guides and lecturers, plus program scheduling during quieter, "shoulder seasons."

AHI Travel Expertise

Passenger Service Representative | Helps with everything from arranging flights to fulfilling special requests.

Travel Director | Manages all details to ensure a memorable trip.

Travel information | Prepares you fully for your journey.

Expert local guides and lecturers | Provide friendly, knowledgeable service and share their passion for their country.

Let us arrange your flights!

AHI FlexAir | Our personalized air program features transfers, assistance and flexibility.
