In 1580, English navigator Sir Frances Drake called the area “the Cape of Storms” and named it “Cape of Good Hope.” In the 19th century, the area was the base of the British occupation of South Africa. Today, Cape Province is home to vibrant culture, diverse landscapes and a vibrant national park system.

In 1897, the Victoria Falls Hotel opened, and it is now a Unesco World Heritage Site and a World Heritage Site. The hotel is a magnificent example of Edwardian architecture and is one of the most luxurious and romantic places to stay in Africa. A World of Discovery

Your next adventure begins in the spectacular landscape of southern Africa.

In 1580, English navigator Sir Francis Drake arrived in Cape Town, the southern point of the earth. "I have found the Cape," he boasted, "and I would hold it in my hand and give all England for it." During the following century, the natural harbor at the southern tip of Africa became the key springboard for pirate expeditions. In 1652, the Dutch East India Company founded a permanent settlement here. As the major port along the route to the East, it attracted traders from around the world.

Today, Cape Town is considered one of the most beautiful cities in the world, an enchanting blend of mountain and sea, ancient walls and modern skyscrapers. A former British colonial capital, it's a vibrant cosmopolitan city with a relaxed, easygoing lifestyle of Cape Dutch homes and colorful gardens dotting the cityscape. A bustling waterfront welcomes visitors with inviting cafés and boutiques set amid workaday harbor life. The incomparable value of our journeys is rooted in the personalized attention we give our guests. What sets this travel adventure apart from others is AHI's unwavering commitment to your well-being and comfort.

During a safari cruise on the Chobe River, you will be amazed by the abundance of elephants, zebra, lions, kudu and other wild predators and prey gathering at the river's edge. The Hide's water hole serves a wide variety of fresh game.
