Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

Thank you for choosing the wonderful seven-night cruise through Belgium and the Netherlands. Unusually short, allow your first-class ship and then delight in the remarkable riches of their most historic cities and towns. Take in the Galleon ambassadors of Bruges and Antwerp. Amsterdam’s gabled canal houses and breathtaking flowers in the renowned gardens. Other ports of call introduce you to Maastricht, steeped in Flemish history, and then to Marken a fisherman town.

You’ll experience excursion that speak to your personal ports. In Bruges, visit a chocolate factory, discover the lace culture or view from the belgium art. See the Egmont and the Mauritshuis celebrated masterpieces, watch artists at the Royal Stuart porcelain factory or tour carvings by Gerard van Honthorst, admire its splendid architecture and visit a historical ship or brewery afterward. Another option takes you to the picturesque garden of Ghent and the historic city of a canal cruiser.

This thoughtfully designed journey features enrichment from expert guides and lecturers, along with the security and ease of group travel. Plus, you will appreciate the character of other cruise lines and make your own discoveries during the two-day journey. An expert lecturer or cruise director will guide you through the region and its history, culture and current events.

Embark on a cruise brimming with Old World charm and history. Along the intimate waterways of Belgium and the Netherlands, you’ll glide through charming canals lined with stately merchants’ houses, the old town hall of Middelburg, and the Old Town of Bruges, packed with medieval architecture. See the Gothic Basilica of the Holy Blood, the massive dams and storm surge barriers that protect the province of Zeeland from the sea, and the collection of Dutch art at the Groeninge Museum.

Enjoy lunch on your own in Bruges, then explore the city on your own or take a guided tour of this medieval Old Town. See the Basilica of the Holy Blood, the most visited Pilgrimage church in Europe, and the Church of St. Nicholas, with its painted-glass windows inside Sint Janskerk. Visit the Royal Delft Porcelain Factory, founded in 1653, then see the city’s Crooked House, built in 1587 and leaning to the east. Later, tour the Groeninge Museum filled with works from 15th-century masters, and admire the medieval character of canals and historical buildings.

After the ship moors overnight in Antwerp, visit Rubens’ statue, Groenplaats, Antwerp, and culinary experiences in selected ports!
Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

There’s much to discover on this wonderful, seven-night cruise through Belgium and the Netherlands. Dear UCLA Alumni and Friends,

Travel in style and comfort on this wonderful, seven-night cruise through Belgium and the Netherlands. Unwind once aboard this fine ship and then delight in the remarkable riches of four most historic cities and towns. Take in the Gable World architecture of Bruges and Antwerpen, Amsterdam’s elegant canal houses and breathtaking flowers in a renowned garden. Other ports of call introduce you to Kampen, eminent in Hanseatic history, and Veere, a laid-back harbor town.

You’ll choose excursions that speak to your special interests. In Bruges, visit a chocolate factory, discover the lace culture or view the fifteenth-century Gruuthuse Museum. In Bruges and the Mauritshuis celebrated masterpiece, watch artisans at the Royal Delft porcelain factory or sample local beers in a local brewery. In Ghent, admire its splendid architecture and visit a hands-on brewery or brewery restaurant. Another option takes you to the picturesque garden village of Giethoorn for a canal cruise.

This thoughtfully designed journey features enrichment from expert guides and lecturers, along with the security and peace of group travel. Plus, you’ll appreciate the camaraderie of other curious travelers and make your own discoveries during free time.

Reserve your trip today!
