Dear Alumni and Friends,

For those looking to follow in the footsteps of pilgrims from centuries past, the Camino de Santiago fulfills this desire. For more than a millennium, pilgrims have traversed the Way of St. James to the Shrine of the Apostle at Santiago de Compostela in Galicia, Spain, along wooded bluffs, across flowered fields, and through scenic landscapes.

On this active program, you will hike the most interesting sections of the Camino while enjoying the culture and hospitality of this unique area, including exquisite cuisine, regional wines, breathtaking architecture, and splendid hotels. This journey on the classic Camino concludes with Mass at the Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela, where the traditional incense-burning ceremony will be performed.

Traveling with you will be Teofilo F. Ruiz, Distinguished Research Professor Emeritus of History and of Spanish and Portuguese, who has hiked the Camino several times over the past 50 years and will share numerous stories and personal anecdotes about his time on the trail. Some of these stories will take you back in time by bringing alive what medieval travel must have been like as you walk along this thousand-year-old road to magical Santiago, redolent with Celtic mystery.

Make the most of your time and add an optional excursion toward the end of your journey to Cape Finisterre, once known as “the end of the Earth.” To reserve your space, please return the reservation form or call our tour operator Arrangements Abroad at 212-514-8921 for more information. UCLA Alumni Travel can be reached at 310-206-0613. I hope you will join us to discover these magical places.
